DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-15 and 23, drawn to a method and device for determining alternans data of an ECG signal, classified in class 600, subclass 509.
 - II. Claims 16-18, drawn to a method for determining alternans data of an ECG signal, classified in class 600, subclass 509.
 - III. Claims 19-22, drawn to a method for determining alternans data of an ECG signal, classified in class 600, subclass 509.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I versus II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not include generating or processing a feature matrix and using principal component vectors to determine the alternans data. The combination also does not include performing statistical analysis to generate a confidence level. The subcombinations each have separate utility such as use by themselves to determine alternans data of an ECG.

Art Unit: 3762

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the searches required for Group II or Group III are not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Inventions II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not include performing statistical analysis to generate a confidence level. The subcombination has separate utility such as use by itself to determine alternans data of an ECG.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group III is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Joseph D. Kuborn on August 25, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jessica L. Reidel whose telephone number is (571) 272-2129. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Thurs 7-4:30 and every other Friday 7-3:30.

Art Unit: 3762

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Robert Pezzuto can be reached on (571) 272-6996. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
